Scenario

You work in a city centre and often pick up passengers from pubs and clubs. You notice that there are often high numbers of young people who appear to be drunk and underage coming out of a particular night club at weekends.

On this occasion when you arrive to pick up your passenger you see a young girl leaving the premises. The girl seems to be about 14 or 15 years of age and is very intoxicated. She is with three significantly older men and the group is walking towards your vehicle.

Scenario

An intoxicated 14 year old offers you sex in place of a taxi fare. She is dropped off at a children's home.

Scenario

You are called to a job at a massage parlour at 3.15am where you pick up an adult female who looks about 23 years old, she has a young girl and a boy with her who look about 13. They are escorted to the car by two older men who address the woman in a foreign language. The children appear afraid and the woman seems upset. The men are in a hurry and ask you to take the passengers to an address in Leeds.

How to report your concern

- Phone 999 if risk is imminent / assault happened or likely to
- Record and report concerns to the police 101 and / or the safeguarding services if a child (xxxx) or vulnerable adult (xxxx) is involved.
- Signpost if safe to do so – offer the passenger information (for example make contact cards or window stickers visible)
- Crimestoppers – insert info

Protecting yourself

- Risks
- Code of Good Safeguarding Practice

Good Safeguarding Practice (1)

- Check at the point of booking if there are any vulnerability issues This will allow you to prepare for the journey in the right way.
- Ask the person booking if an escort for the vulnerable passenger is required and if they are providing one
- Let head office know (or keep a record) of the time you picked up the vulnerable passenger, the time and place you dropped them off and whether there was any incident or anything significant on the journey.
- If you refuse to take a passenger inform someone that you can't take them so they can deal with the person another way (eg hospital staff; family; security staff if a club/pub)
- Record incidents and refusals
- Be professional – try not to be over-friendly or talk about personal or intimate issues, don't exchange personal contact information such as passenger's telephone numbers or facebook address. Avoid swearing or aggressive behaviour. Do not touch passengers.
- Never accept an offer of a sexual favour instead of payment.
- Make sure you are wearing ID, either a badge or company uniform.
- Sit lone passengers in the back unless otherwise agreed.
- Ask or explain to passengers if using a centralised locking system – don't just put it on without an explanation.

Good Safeguarding Practice (2)

- DON'T ASSUME that your passenger wants help – ALWAYS ASK
- Never follow a passenger into the house unless previously agreed / properly authorised
- ASK before making a journey shorter by going off the main roads/using isolated country roads, explain and give the passenger (or person booking) a choice of route.
- NEVER set off with a passenger without a specific destination address
- NEVER double up on a booking – even if passengers are travelling in a similar direction, they may pose a threat or risk to the other passenger
- If you think the passenger is afraid, offer to ring head office to tell them you have a passenger named XXXX with you and give the address and approximate time of arrival; this reassures the person that they are safe and someone is monitoring the trip.
- As with all professions if you are concerned about another driver's conduct report your concerns to your manager or the relevant agency.
- Organisations should have a lead member of staff for safeguarding, this person should be able to advise colleagues about how to manage vulnerable passengers and any incidents arising.
- ALWAYS KEEP A RECORD either in your cab or at head office, of ANY incidents or situations you were not happy with – the record should include a description of what happened and what you did to keep yourself and your passenger safe.
