
Would you recognise if a child or young person was being sexually exploited?

Say something if you see something

If you have concerns about child sexual exploitation, you may be unsure about whether you should be worried, but it is important that you don't keep any concerns to yourself.

What to do if you have concerns

Police

Call 101 for non-emergencies and quote Operation Makesafe or ask for the Child Sexual Exploitation team.

Call 999 if you are concerned that a child is in immediate danger.

Crimestoppers

If you wish to remain anonymous, contact Crimestoppers 0800 555 111 or report online www.crimestoppers-uk.org/give-information/give-information-online/

Safeguarding Children Boards

Download record templates and for more information on child sexual exploitation visit Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland safeguarding children board websites:
