

PRIVATE

FOSTERING

INFORMATION FOR PROFESSIONALS

Are you working with a child who is living with another family – who are not their close relatives
– under a private arrangement?

If yes, get in touch:

If you have become aware of a child who may be privately fostered, you are responsible for making the child's local children's social care service aware without delay.

INFORMATION FOR PARENTS AND CARERS

Is your child living with someone who isn't a close relative?
Or are you caring for someone else's child and you're not their close relative?
Is this a private arrangement?

If so, this could be considered a private fostering arrangement.

If you don't tell your local children's social care service about the child's living arrangements you will be breaking the law, and you could be putting their safety and well-being at risk.
